

POWER SAVES LIVES.
STATELINE IS THERE TO HELP.

Every day. Every minute. Every second. A life is saved because of a power-generated machine. Power breathes life into lungs, pumps life-giving blood through veins and protects those who have entered the world too young.

The medical and healthcare industries rely upon access to consistent power more than any other. From hospitals to managed care facilities, constant connection is crucial.

Stateline offers strong, reliable backup power solutions for the healthcare industry that are built with careful hands and full knowledge of their purpose.
